

If We Don't Hear from You

If you decide not to sign and return Form 4089-B, and you do not file a petition with the Tax Court within the time limit, the law requires us to assess and bill you for the deficiency after 90 days from the date of this letter (150 days if this letter is addressed to you outside the United States).

NOTE: If you are a C-corporation, section 6621(c) of the Internal Revenue Code requires that we charge an interest rate two percent higher than the normal rate on corporate underpayments in excess of $100,000.

Information About the IRS Taxpayer Advocate Office

The IRS office whose phone number appears at the top of the notice can best address and access your tax information and help get you answers. You may be eligible for help from the Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) if you have tried to resolve your tax problem through normal IRS channels and have gotten nowhere, or you believe an IRS procedure just isn't working as it should. TAS is your voice at the IRS. TAS helps taxpayers whose problems are causing financial difficulty or significant cost, including the cost of professional representation (this includes businesses as well as individuals). You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free number at 1-877-777-4778 or by contacting the local Taxpayer Advocate office at:

1999 Broadway, MS 1005DEN
Denver, CO 80202

DO NOT contact the IRS - They can't help you - You must file a petition in Tax Court!

To learn more about TAS and your basic tax responsibilities, visit www.TaxpayerAdvocate.irs.gov.

How to Contact Us

Don't contact the IRS - only the Tax Court!!

You may write or call the contact person whose name, telephone number, and IRS address are shown in the heading of this letter if you need further assistance. If you write, please include your telephone number, the best times if we need to call you and a copy of this letter to help us identify your account.

If you prefer to call and the telephone number is outside your local calling area, there may be a long distance charge to you.

Keep the original letter for your records.

Sincerely,

John A. Koskinen
Commissioner
